Bill for Divorce.

To the Hon.H.A.W.Skeen,Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee Co.

Humbly complaining,your orator,George Z.Parsons,a citizen of Lee County,Virginia,respectfully represents unto your honor,and charges that he and Alice Bailey,on or about the _____ day of _____,1908,in Harlan County,Ky.,were duly married to each other;that after their marriage,house kept and lived together as man and wife,in this county,hapily,until a few days ago,to the great surprise and shagrin of your orator,he learned that his said wife had become untrue to him;that on the _____ day of July, and divers other days and times, 1909,his said wife,in this county,at their dwelling house,and around and about their premises,without the consent,procurement and connivance of your orator,committed the crime and act of adultery, by having carnal and sexual intercourse with one _____ on the day Clem;that ~~after~~ your orator learned of her said infidelity and adulterous acts,and had accosted her about the matter,she left your orator's home,saying she was going to Harlan County,Ky.,and your orator is advised,charges and believes,she went away with the said Clem.

Your orator further charges and alleges that since he had information of the adulterous acts aforesaid of his said wife,he had not lived with her,nor in any way condoned her said offense;that he is now and has been for more than a year previous to the institution of this suit been domiciled in and a citizen of Lee County, Virginia,and that they last cohabited together as man and wife in this county;that it is probable that his said wife will not come back to this State;that she will remain out of this State where she can be with her said paramour,- he being ^a resident and citizen of Harlan County,Ky.,as your orator is informed.

The premises aforesaid considered,your orator is advised that he ^{by} is law entitled to have an absolute divorce from his said wife, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from her, but only a court of chancery has jurisdiction to hear and award; and to that end he prays your honor to take cognizance of this his cause of complaint; that the said Alice Parsons be made a party defendant to this bill of complaint; that she be required to answer this bill, but she need not do so on oath as that is waived; that in case she has become a non-resident of this State, or absents herself so that process herein can not be served upon her, an order of publication be made and posted for her as required by law; that upon a final hearing of this cause, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii be awarded and granted your orator for ever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between him and the said Alice. And that all other, further and general relief be granted your orator that the nature of his cause may require to conform to good conscience and equity. And he will ever pray, etc.

Dear Tip:-

I phoned you to day through Capt. Joslyn the following Memorandum: George Z. Parsons Vs. Alace Parsons. Spa. In Chancery, to the 2nd Aug. Rules, 1909" . Told Capt. Joslyn to tell you, I would send you writ tax to-night; so I herewith enclose you my check for $1.50 to pay the writ tax on this suit. If you have not done so, send the process to Elbert Stapleton.

Yours very truly,
E. W. Pennington.

P.S.

I enclose you the bill in this case, which file.
